

TRANS HISTORY

International teacher training seminar for 26 Moldovan, 8 Ukrainian and 3 German educators on „Connecting Moldovan students with 20th Century Jewish History – and with their neighbors. “

Locations: Jewish Community Center, Chisinau & EcoVisio Training Center, Riscova

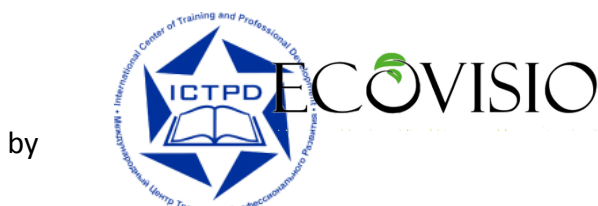

November 28-30, 2018

A project by

In Partnership with

Supported

TRANS HISTORY

PROGRAM

Day 1, Wednesday, November 28, 2018 – Jewish Cultural Center (JCC), Chisinau
14:00 – 15:00	Check in at City Park Hotel, Chisinau
15:00	Participants walk to ICTPD conference venue at JCC (3-minute walk)
15:00 – 15:20	Registration at JCC
15:30	Welcome remarks by Maximilian von Schoeler (Centropa) and Galina Karger (ICTPD). Additional remarks by David Gullette, Program Manager of the Human Rights Program at the OSCE Mission to Moldova, Julia Sheinman of the Chisinau Jewish Community, and a Representative of the Moldovan Education Ministry (tbc)
16:00	Icebreaking activity led by ICTPD, Galina Cargher and Irina Shikhova
16:30	Coffee break
17:00	Introduction of the Trans.History website and Centropa’s Moldovan biographies. Screening of Centropa’s two Moldovan educational short films about Tamara Koblik and Ivan Barbul
17:20	Veteran educators Marina Anghel and Svetlana Kostetskaya present how they used these films in class (10 min for each presentation, then 20 minutes of open discussion with seminar participants)
18:00	Historical lecture by Igor Casu (State University of Moldova) about the Jews of Moldova in the archives of the KGB (1944 – 1989) including 30 minutes of group work with documents from the archive and discussion
19:00	Group departs for welcome dinner

TRANS HISTORY

19:15	Welcome Dinner at Robin Pub (Strada Alexandru cel Bun 83)
20:45	End of Day 1

Day 2, Thursday, November 29, 2018 – Orhei and Ecovisio Training Center, Riscova

08:30	Participants walk to JCC
08:45	Bus transfer to Orhei (1 hour)
10:00	Guided tour by Irina Shikhova (Jewish Heritage Moldova) to the Jewish cemetery and the (still active) synagogue of Orhei. Izeaslav Mundrean, the local head of the Jewish community, will join us and will be available for questions
11:30	Bus transfer to Ecovisio Training Center in Riscova
12:00	Welcome remarks by Ecovisio president, Julian Gröger
12:15	Lunch
13:15	Group work. Participants receive printed copies of Tamara Koblik's and Ivan Barbul's photos and a printout of each their biographies in their language, then split up in small groups and work with facilitators and veteran teachers on how to use the film and the biography in class. Participants upload their layouts their lesson plan ideas – with the help of Centropa staff – onto the Trans.History website
14:45	Short presentations of lesson plans by each group
15:15	Coffee break
15:45	Marketplace of Ideas: Teachers from Moldova, Ukraine and Germany present their Trans.History projects in small groups
16:45	Screening of Centropa's film about Arnold Fabrikant from Odessa
17:00	Group work. Participants split up in small groups and use online version of Arnold Fabrikant's biography to develop lesson plan ideas
18:00	Groups present lesson plan drafts to rest of the group, followed by feedback round
18:30	Dinner at Ecovisio Training Center

TRANS HISTORY

19:30	Bus transfer to City Park Hotel in Chisinau
--------------	---

Day 3, Friday, November 30, 2018 – JCC, Chisinau

08:00 – 9:00	Participants check out of hotel room and walk to Jewish Community Center
09:30	Official presentation of Centropa’s exhibition „The Moldovan Jewish Family Album“ in the auditorium of the Jewish Community Center in the presence of special Guests from the OSCE, the Moldovan Education Ministry, the German and US Embassies, the Human Rights Officer from the Council of Europe and NGO representatives. Guests and participants receive an English-language brochure of the exhibition Introductory remarks by Maximilian von Schoeler, Florian Seitz (German Embassy), Galina Kargher, and Alexandr Bilinkis of the Chisinau Jewish community. Local students (Liceul Teatral) guide participants and guests through the exhibition
10:30	Coffee break.
11:00	Networking session with Florian Seitz: Informal discussion round about Holocaust education, Civics and Commemorations.
11:45	Centropa presents selected projects made by students from Ukraine and Moldova (Graphic novels and videos) and announces the new Trans.History student competition 2018/2019, followed by introduction of the competition guidelines
12:15	Wrap-up session: Participants will evaluate the seminar in small groups
12:45	Final remarks by Centropa and ICTPD. Participants receive certificates
13:00	Lunch at Robin Pub (Strada Alexandru cel Bun 83)
14:00	End of seminar. Participants depart